The Indiana Historical Society Speakers Bureau list is provided as a service to the various groups and organizations throughout Indiana that are seeking program topics with an historical flavor. The individuals included in this list provide a wide range of topics covering local, state, national, and international subjects both past and present. The list is arranged in alphabetical order followed by a subject index. There is also an index to workshops and first person presentations at the end of the list.

Groups desiring to contact one or more of the individuals listed may do so by phone, e-mail, or correspondence. Financial and travel arrangements can and should be discussed at the time of contact. In many cases both the speaker's fees and travel expenses are negotiable. The Indiana Historical Society lists the speakers as a service to them. None of the speakers listed herein, except for Society staff, represents the Indiana Historical Society.
